

Education

In one district children had been using the church as their school. After the church denied them continued access, the children were forced to walk 7 miles to the nearest school to attend.

The Executive Director of Born to Aid has donated her own land in Bungoma district, TuTi village, for our first project, the construction of a school with 2 classrooms. In addition we will provide funding for hiring of quality teachers and purchase of supplies.