

NGO Status

As of May, 2008 Born To Aid has been granted NGO status by the NGO Coordination Board of Kenya. We will shortly have Tax exempt as well as duty free concession from the Kenya Revenue Authority. It has been a lengthy process requiring personal appearances before the Board at several points along the way. Now that we have this status we can begin to export to Kenya medical equipment which is in storage along with well drilling rigs and other equipment.